

Tenancy contract

The signing of this document constitutes a legally binding agreement for renting student accommodation between Sit, Studentsamskipnaden i Gjøvik, Ålesund og Trondheim as the landlord and

Customer number: 393578 MUHAMMAD DANIYAL as the tenant.

Information about the rental unit, Hybel 810 H0810

Dorm in collective in Gjøvik - Sørbyen
Kalkvegen 11
2818 GJØVIK
NOR

App. size of private room/rooms: 11
Kitchen shared with 2 others.
Bathroom is shared with 2 others.

This tenancy agreement starts 01.01.26 and ends 31.07.26.

If the tenant is entitled to rent student housing with Sit, cf Student housing allocation regulations, the tenant can be offered a new tenancy agreement for the same or a similar rental object for a new period during spring 2026.

If you wish to terminate the contract before 31.07.26, you must give minimum of two - 2 - months notice.

Husleie

Rent is due the 1. of every month. You start paying rent from 01.01.26.
The invoice will be sent to "My page" bolig.sit.no

From date	To date		Price pr month
01.01.26	31.07.26	Leie inkl energi /Rent incl en	4 694 kr 4 694 NOK

Contract enclosures:

All tenants are obliged to familiarize themselves with the contract enclosures found at:
Documents \(sit.no\)

Regarding the Cancellation Act

The right of withdrawal function is available on "My page" for 14 days after signing the tenancy agreement.
I understand that delivery of the service has begun and that the rent accrues from the contract start date until the right of withdrawal is exercised, cf. the Withdrawal Act § 22 litra c.

Signatures/digital signing

By signing this tenancy agreement I, MUHAMMAD DANIYAL confirm that I have read §§ 1-16 of this tenancy agreement and that I have familiarized myself with the current version of Sit's regulations for student housing and Sit's price list for additional services and fees, and that I am obliged to follow and abide by them.

Tenant's signature:

For lessor
Trondheim, 18.11.2025

Place:..... Date:.....

MUHAMMAD DANIYAL

Tina Landfastøien
Student accommodation manager

Date of birth: 07.12.1994

§ 1 WHO CAN BE A TENANT

Unless another agreement has been made specifically, the following applies:

1. It is presupposed that the accommodation should cover the tenants housing needs during his or her period of study. The tenant must be a student at one of Sit's partner academic institutions and must have paid the semester fee to Sit, according to Sit's student housing allocation regulations.
2. This offer for a housing contract and right of habitation of this student accommodation is based upon information submitted by the tenant upon booking, and in accordance with the student housing distribution regulations. The tenant is obliged to inform Sit if changes occur during the studies, the studies are ended, or if there is a change in the family situation which will affect the tenant's right of habitation.
Right of habitation:
 - a) A smaller than 20 sqm single room in shared kitchen can only be booked by a single student.
 - b) A larger than 20 sqm single room in shared kitchen can only be booked by a single student or a couple.
 - c) A 1-bedroom apartment can be booked by students with or without children.
 - d) Apartments with more than one bedroom can be booked by families with children. If vacancy these can also be booked by friends.
3. The maximum time of residency in student housing owned by Sit is that which occurs first of either the tenant's completion of the nominal length of study or a residency period of 5 years.
4. If the conditions in this paragraph are no longer met, the landlord can terminate this agreement, in accordance with § 3, or annul the agreement, in accordance with § 9-9 of the Tenancy Act.
5. Making the room or apartment available for others is not allowed. Exceptions can be made when subleasing has been approved according to § 11.

§ 2 RENT

1. Rent is due on the 1st of every month. For the month of moving in and the month of moving out, rent is calculated based on the number of days the tenant has a contract for the room or apartment. Additional expenses for collecting outstanding debt will be charged to the tenant. Rent is due from the start of the contract, regardless of when the tenant really moves in. If the key is released to the tenant earlier than the contract's starting date, rent must be paid from that date.
2. The tenant is responsible for paying rent until the contract ends, even if the residence is vacated prior to this date. If a new tenant moves in during the tenant's period of notice, the tenant will be refunded rent for the overlapping period.
3. Energy costs are additional unless it is stated that the rent includes energy. Tenants in apartments requiring a separate energy subscription are responsible for setting up an agreement with their chosen energy provider from the start of the contract. Upon termination of the contract, it is the tenant's responsibility to cancel this energy subscription.

§ 3 GIVING NOTICE/ MOVING OUT

1.
 - a) The tenant can terminate the tenancy agreement with two – 2 – months of notice, starting from the date the landlord receives the notice.
 - b) Notice must be given online, by using the form found on "My page" at bolig.sit.no.
 - c) Defects or malfunctions when moving out must be reported using the Self Declaration Form on "My Page" at bolig.sit.no
 - d) The landlord also has the right to terminate the tenancy agreement, cf. § 9-2 of the Tenancy Act.
2. At the end of the tenancy, the tenant must return the residence, including all accessories and fixtures, to the landlord, tidied, cleaned, and in the same condition as when it was handed over. Exceptions are made for deterioration because of aging and normal wear and tear. Defects that the tenant has neglected to repair can be mended by the landlord at the tenant's expense. Belongings that are forgotten or left behind will be disposed of in accordance with § 10-4 of the Tenancy Act.

§ 4 HANDING OVER THE RESIDENCE

1. The landlord is obliged to put the residence at the tenant's disposal at the agreed upon time, in a clean and tidy condition.
2. If the tenant has not moved into the room/apartment within two months after the contract starts, and Sit is unable get in touch with the tenant, Sit may give notice and terminate the tenancy agreement.
3. The tenant must make sure that the residence, with fixtures and accessories, is in good condition, according to the inventory list. The inventory list is found at the same web page as the contract enclosures. The tenant must report any defects or malfunctions using the Self Declaration Form found on "My Page" at bolig.sit.no within 3 working days. Costs related to repairing deficiencies that were not reported upon moving in can be charged to the tenant when moving out.

§ 5 THE LANDLORD'S RESPONSIBILITIES AND RIGHTS DURING THE TENANCY

1. The landlord is responsible for all indoor and outdoor maintenance of the building and property. The landlord is also responsible for maintaining the standard of the residence to a level equal to what it was upon handing over to the tenant, except for aging and normal wear and tear.
2. The landlord has the right to inspect the common areas, shared kitchens, and shared bathrooms in shared accommodations.
3. When a tenant reports a defects or malfunction to the landlord, this grants the landlord permission to enter the residence. During inspections or repairs, the landlord must take the tenant's needs into consideration. If possible, the tenant must be notified before the landlord enters private areas. In shared accommodations, the common areas, shared kitchens, and shared bathrooms are not considered private areas.
4. The landlord cannot be held liable for disadvantages due to unexpected incidents during the tenancy. Unexpected incidents can be water leaks, power outages, burglaries, loss of internet connection, etc. See also § 7-1 regarding the tenant's duty to buy home contents insurance. Neither can the landlord be held liable for inconvenience caused by construction noise at or near the student village or housing.
5. All information shared between the tenant and the landlord is by the landlord considered confidential and will not be released to third parties unless the tenant has given written consent.

§ 6 BREACH OF CONTRACT ON THE PART OF THE LANDLORD

1. A tenant that, according to § 1 of the tenancy agreement, has accepted the agreement, but is not given the disposition of the residence from the day the tenancy starts, can demand that the landlord makes an alternative residence available.
2. The landlord must improve, without unnecessary delay, the defects, or malfunctions, that the tenant has reported upon moving in or during the tenancy.
3. If such a defect or malfunction is due to ongoing maintenance work, or there are other, sound reasons for it, the landlord has the right to make temporary repairs, even if this results in an inferior solution for the tenant compared to what is stated in the tenancy agreement.
4. If the landlord does not comply with the tenant's request for improvement, or if the defect is not repaired as stated in § 6-3, the tenant can terminate the tenancy agreement, unless the defect or malfunction must be considered insignificant.

§ 7 THE TENANT'S OBLIGATIONS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. The tenant must buy household content insurance or liability insurance that covers third party liability. The landlord holds insurance for the building itself and for inventory owned by the landlord.
2. The tenant must treat the residence, private and shared parts, and the remaining property in a responsible manner.
3. The tenant cannot make any changes to the residence's inventory, fixed installations, or appearance (including painting), nor to the property in general.
4. The tenant will be held responsible for all damages that is not due to wear and tear, regardless of if the damages are self-induced or caused by the tenant's household, sub-lessee, or other persons that the tenant has given access to the private or shared parts of the residence or property.
5. The cost of changing door locks due to missing key will be charged the tenant according to the price list for additional services and fees.
6. The tenant must not use the residence for any other purposes than those stated in § 1.

7. The tenant's obligations regarding damages and repairs to the residence.
 - a) If the tenant discovers any damage or malfunction that needs to be repaired immediately to avoid causing further damage, this must be reported to the landlord or the landlord's alarm central immediately. The tenant is obliged to carry out any necessary measures to prevent economic loss for the landlord because of the damage or malfunction.
 - b) Tenants must report any other damage to the residence or property without unnecessary delay, via "My page" at bolig.sit.no. If such incidences are not reported, the tenant can be held liable for all damages resulting from it.
8. The tenant is responsible for keeping the user information on "My page" updated. Information from the landlord to the tenant will primarily be sent via "My page" or to the tenant's registered email address.

§ 8 SMOKING, USING INCENSE, ETC.

Smoking, including e-cigarettes and incense, is not permitted in or near any of the landlord's buildings. This applies to private areas, all common areas, balconies, verandas, entrances, etc. The smoke from any kind of tobacco, incense, or similar items, result in a need for renovation. All costs for such renovation will be charged to the tenant, cf. § 14-1.

§ 9 PETS / DOMESTIC ANIMALS

The keeping of pets or domestic animals is not permitted in any of the landlord's residences. Domestic animals are not allowed during visits to the residence either. Tenants can apply for an exemption for guide dogs or service dog for handicapped.

§ 10 PESTS / VERMIN

If pests are discovered, or suspected to be present, in the residence or on the property, the tenant must immediately, without unnecessary delay, report this to the landlord. Pests include cockroaches, bedbugs, rodents, etc. If the tenant fails to inform the landlord about the presence of pests, the cost of repairs following damage caused by them can be charged to the tenant. Breach of instructions given during pest control is considered as material breach of tenancy agreement, cf. § 14.

§ 11 SUBLEASING

The tenant can apply for subleasing of the residence if the tenant is going to be away from the rented accommodation during parts of the tenancy period.

1. The subleasing period and the sub-lessee must be approved by the landlord.
2. The sub-lessee must be a student at one of Sit's partner academic institutions.
3. The sub-lessee must be made familiar with the contents of this tenancy agreement.
4. During the subleasing period, the tenant is still responsible for making sure that rent and any additional charges are paid on time, and for any damage to the residence, inventory, or the property in general. The tenant cannot charge a subtenant higher rent than they themselves pay for the housing.
5. § 11-2 of the Tenancy Act gives student welfare organisations extended rights to deny subletting compared to other landlords.

§ 12 SIT CAN DEMAND MOVING DURING THE RESIDENCY

1. If extensive renovation or rehabilitation work is being carried out, the tenant may be required to move to another residence. If the accommodation Sit offers has a higher rent, the tenant shall be notified at least 2 months in advance.
2. If the tenant lives in a residence adapted for handicapped tenants, and the landlord requires the residence for a student in need of an adapted residence, the tenant can be moved to another residence. Residences adjusted for handicapped tenants are marked with HC under "Information about the residential unit."

§ 13 SPOUSE, LIVE-IN PARTNER AND CHILDREN

Due to safety reasons, the landlord must keep records of all tenants. If there is a change in the tenant's household, i.e. a spouse or child moves in, or the tenant gets a live-in partner, these changes must be registered on "My page" at bolig.sit.no.

§ 14 BREACH OF CONTRACT ON THE PART OF THE TENANT

1. Any costs for the landlord that are the result of the tenant's breach of the tenancy agreement or Sit's regulations for student housings will be charged to the tenant.
2. The tenant accepts Norwegian law which determines that the tenant can be forced to leave the rented premises (evicted) if the rent and/or charges for additional services are not paid within fourteen -14 - days of a written request being presented, or if rent has not been paid within fourteen -14 - days after normal due date. According to § 13-2, subsection 3, litra a, of the Enforcement Act, the landlord may request dispossession without a lawsuit. If the tenant fails to vacate the residence when the period of tenancy has ended, the tenant will be evicted without a lawsuit, cf. § 13-2, subsection 3, litra b or c, of the Enforcement Act.
3. Violations of the tenancy agreement or Sit's regulations for student housings can result in a written warning. Two - 2 - written warnings are considered grounds for termination of the tenancy agreement.
4. If the contract or Sit's regulations for student housings is breached in any other material way by the tenant, the tenancy agreement can be annulled. See § 9-9 of the Tenancy Act.
The following, amongst other things, are considered material breaches of the contract:
 - a) The tenant fails to pay rent, or other charges, or fails to abide by other demands arising from the tenancy agreement or regulations for student housing.
 - b) The tenant, regardless of written warnings from the landlord, keeps behaving in a manner that causes serious damage, injury, or nuisance to the landlord, the residence, the property, or other tenants.
 - c) The tenant, without permission, partially or wholly entrusts the use of the residence to another party and does not desist after a written warning from the landlord has been issued.
 - d) The tenant, without permission, uses the residence in another way or for other uses than what is agreed upon, and does not desist after a written warning from the landlord has been issued.
 - e) The tenant fails to oblige to the contractual responsibilities in such a way that it is deemed necessary to terminate the tenancy agreement. If the tenant in such cases fails to voluntarily leave the residence, the tenant may be evicted from the residence in accordance with the Enforcement Act § 13-2, subsection 3, litra d.
5. The tenant will be charged in accordance with the contract enclosure "Additional services and fees," in addition to normal rent, should the residence fail to be vacated and/or the house key(s) not returned by the tenancy agreement's end. These charges are to cover the landlord's expenses related to the breach of contract. The tenant is also liable for expenses related to forced eviction, lawsuits, and any required additional cleaning resulting from this.

§ 15 JURISDICTION

The parties agree that any disputes arising from this agreement shall be Handled by the appropriate legal authorities for Gjøvik, Ålesund or Trondheim.

§ 16 GOVERNING LAW

1. This agreement applies to the renting of student housing, cf. § 11-2 of the Tenancy Act. The residence is intended for persons with temporary housing needs during their time of study.
2. The regulations in § 11-2 of the Tenancy Act gives the tenant fewer rights concerning the minimum period for a time restricted contract, admission to housing, subletting and advance rent payment. Unless otherwise stated, the Tenancy Act no. 17 of 26 March 1999 applies to the tenancy.